

The father

- The father is the first person in the trinity in Exodus he gave Moses the "name I am what I am" or "I am who I am" or simply "I AM"
- The father is God revealed to us through the Old Testament
- He is the first in the Trinity and the head of the trinity Being known as the Holy Father
- In the New Testament he gave the Holy Spirit to Jesus
- The other two members of the trinity derived their Essences from him

The Son

- the Son Also known as Jesus Christ or by his longer title Jesus Christ of Nazareth is God incarnate revealed to us by the New Testament
- There were hints to him in the Old Testament And even some Psalms and other parts of the Hebrew Bible referenced him not directly but simply as the Messiah
- He received the Holy Spirit from the father and gave it to all baptized Christians
- Is able to save people even if they aren't baptized EX: The Thief on the cross
- Reincarnate Son of God without human form until being born of Mary
- Free of original sin unlike his mother Mary and has a divine nature which his mother Mary does not possess making him the only qualified Savior for Humanity 100% God and 100% man

The Holy Spirit

- The Holy Spirit also known as the Holy Ghost is what gives Christians their new hearts and their desire not to sin even if not directly in someone's body it can still influence them which is why people are able to become Christian in the first place
- Was given to Jesus by the father coming through the father to Jesus ending with Jesus giving it to us
- got the Virgin Mary pregnant without intercourse allowing Jesus to exist in his human form
- Blocked Jesus from getting corrupted by Original Sin making him ultimately the only truly sinless human alive both without original sin and personal sin

Trinity as a whole

- Both the son and the Holy Spirit derive their Essence from the Father
- the Holy Spirit derives its Essence from the Father only
- Jesus' human nature and divine nature are cohesive but separate they are not one nature but two
- The trinity also known as the Triune God is one being but three persons known as the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit
- Every member of the trinity is eternal and equally God

The Virgin Mary

The Virgin Mary also known as the theotokos is not part of the trinity

The Virgin Mary gave birth to the son who is part of the Triune God giving birth to both his Divine and human natures through her womb the human and divine Natures were United of which were of Christ Jesus

although not free of original sin herself Through God's grace self-control and her own free will she managed to commit no personal sin of her own Meaning she is sinless

Ultimately still having original sin means she needed a savior

Mary is 100% human But unlike her son she does not have the divine nature meaning she is not God

She has been and will forever be a virgin perpetually

And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

The word until and till does not infer a finite end

2 Samuel 6:23

Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death.

It is biologically impossible to have children after death so it shows that the word till or until does not always infer a finite end Making Mary's Perpetual virginity possible Despite this verse not pertaining to marry herself

Mary did not have sex with Joseph and Jesus did not have brothers

Luke 1:34

Then said Mary unto the angel, "How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?"

This implies she was not even planning to be a mother and by proxy not having sex She wouldn't have asked this if she actually planned to have sex with Joseph to have children Because the angel could have been easily predicting her having sex but we know that's not the case she never did and especially did not have sex to form Jesus

Matthew 13:55

Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary and his brethren ( ἄδελφοί) James and Joseph, and Simon and Judas?

The word brethren or brothers in Greek is "ἀδελφοί" (adelphoi) And can refer to close kin or cousins Also making the Perpetual virginity possible Because as you see it refers to his apostles some of which have no biological relation

The Eucharist

The Eucharist is also known as communion

The Eucharist should always be made up of bread and wine never any substitutes for either the bread or the wine

the Eucharist is the true body and blood of Christ not a symbol the Eucharist represents the sacrifice of Christ Jesus meaning that Eucharist is not another sacrifice just a representation

the Eucharist contains the presence of Christ and can only be consecrated by a priest with valid Apostolic succession

a Eucharist that is attempted to be consecrated by somebody who is not a priest or doesn't have Apostolic succession is just regular Bread and Wine and in this case it would be a symbol to remember Jesus's sacrifice like the Eucharist found in some Protestant denominations and Evangelical denominations as Campbell restorationist churches

the Eucharist does not forgive sins

Eastern Orthodox Christians on other Orthodox Christians as well as pre Vatican II Roman Catholic churches as well as old Catholic churches and some non liberal Protestant denominations have a valid Eucharist

the Eucharist is essential for all Christians Jesus Christ himself said if you don't eat the Flesh and drink the blood of the son of man you have no life in you

Double Predestination

double predestination Is the belief that everyone's fate is predestined from birth This contradicts the gift of Free Will given by God

some things are predestined like some things at Birth but your Eternal destiny is not the belief in double predestination is a calvinist heresy of course introduced by John Calvin of the Protestant Reformation

Things that are predestined Can include birth defects Your biological sex / gender And even predetermined genetic factors like generally how you will look

Things that cannot be predestined is whether you're going to heaven or hell whether or not you subscribe to a certain religion and whether or not you are saved in Christ Forcing anything onto a person whether it be forcing a person into heaven or hell forcing a person to follow Christ or subscribe to a certain religion God will not do that God has given us free will

Homosexuality and lgbtq+

any church proclaiming that they worship Christ but accept homosexuality and lgbtq+ are not the true church and should be divided from said Church any church that affirms the practices found within these is heretical all Christians that follow the Bible and 2,000 years of church tradition should have the discernment to distance themselves from these churches

if you are in one of these churches get out immediately it is salvation or damnation for you

Feminist theology

A theological Christian Movement that recontextualizes the Bible disrespecting God's pronouns God in the Bible predominantly goes by male pronouns and this theological movement throws that out the window disrespecting God and blaspheming his name calling him a woman

Feminist theology also contradicts the gender roles found in the Bible often allowing for homosexuality and lgbtq+ affirmation

Generally since this is associated with the feminist movement that being the modern day feminist movement we can assume that the theological heresy of changing God's pronouns was introduced because deeply ingrained sexism making this theological movement even more heretical

Anyone practicing a feminist theology is in dire need of help and repentance Repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand it's either your damnation or salvation if you follow this

Apostolic corruption and the papacy

Pope Francis and many modern-day popes before him have committed horrid acts of idolatry which includes but not limited to blessing of homosexual couples even if it's under the context of blessing The Sinner and not the sin you're still blessing a couple as a unit

Islamic syncretism

The final nail in the coffin is way before Pope Francis in the second Vatican Council The section of Lumen Gentium 16: This section explicitly states that Muslims "adore the one, merciful God". It also mentions that Muslims "profess to hold the faith of Abraham".

Making anyone who accepts Vatican 2 as authoritative and binding no longer effectively Christian because of synchronistic heresy

The papacy has been running off of invalid popes and Corruption since Vatican II

This means only Roman Catholics that reject Vatican to which are the pre-vatican II Roman Catholics which was before Vatican II existed and then the old Catholic Church which rejects Vatican 2 the old Catholic Church being a modern-day offshoot of the Roman Catholic Church after disputes of papal infallibility

papal infallibility

papal infallibility The pope is not infallible he is a sinner just like the rest of us he is the first of all equals this stems off of the doctrine of papal infallibility introduced by the Roman Catholic Church teaching authority when he speaks "ex cathedra" (from the chair). This doctrine was formally defined at the First Vatican Council in 1870. Even if it wasn't about the Pope's personal life it has been proven that no human being is infallible and we often contradict ourselves so no matter the context there is no such thing as an infallible human other than Jesus Christ himself

Baptism

baptism is usually unnegotiable except if you're like the thief on the cross who is baptized by desire to get baptized but generally baptism is unnegotiable Baptism is the way we are washed of original sin and our soul is regenerated and we become a new creation It is also the way we get initiated into the New Covenant being transferred from the inactive old Covenant from the Old Testament into the blood Covenant which is the New Covenant of the New Testament which was initiated by Jesus Christ and his sacrifice on the cross baptism is not optional but a necessity for all who seek to get saved

infant baptism

Infant baptism is a widely debated topic but is seen as valid by the Eastern Orthodox and other Orthodox churches some Protestant denominations Roman Catholics and old Catholics generally the people who reject infant baptism are Campbell restorationists better known as non-denominationalists from the Churches of Christ getting baptized even as an infant is valid is long as it's done with fully immersion historically and even in the Bible entire households were baptized of course this would include infants

Historically baptism was done by full immersion even for infants. The Eastern Orthodox use a triple dunk technique which fully immerses the baby in the water without the risk of drowning. Of course this counting is a fully immersion and a valid baptism. The only scenario where a sprinkling may be used instead of a full immersion baptism is if somebody is literally on their deathbed or just for some reason cannot get fully immersed but generally if somebody can get fully immersed a sprinkling would be invalid in that scenario the preferred method is always full immersion pouring and sprinkling is only to be used in absolute fatal emergencies.

rebaptism

Rebaptism generally occurs if somebody goes to a non-denominational church of Christ or any church that does not believe infant baptism is valid and rebaptizes somebody or somebody gets baptized like in a believer's baptism although Believers baptism is valid people will doubt their baptism and get rebaptized both babies and adults go through rebaptism. Of course this is a grave heresy. If you were baptized even as an infant you should never get rebaptized unless you were baptized by majorly heretical churches like churches that deny the trinity and basic core Christian doctrine. Or if your baptism was not done by full immersion. Obviously some emergency situations would be an exception. There is no need for a second baptism there is only one. Baptism is a sacrament of Grace not bound by personal understanding. Anyone who has been baptized in the proper formula "I baptize you in the name of the father Son and Holy Spirit" is validly baptized and should never get rebaptized.

Marriage

Marriage is an unbreakable Union between one man and one woman this means any marriage done between a man and a man or a woman and a woman or multiple men or multiple women is invalid and is not honored by God but marriage between one man and one woman is the sacrament of marriage and is declared Holy by God. God had established that marriage was a union between one man and woman since the beginning scene in Genesis. Any attempt to honor a marriage between a man and a man and a woman and a woman is an abomination.

Genesis 2:24

Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife; and they shall be one flesh.

Leviticus 18:22

2Thou shalt not lie with mankind as with womankind: it is abomination.

Divorce

Divorce when it was talked about by Jesus Christ himself he had said that no one should ever get divorced Except for on the grounds of sexual immorality.

Matthew 19:9

And I say unto you, whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery; and whoso marrieth her who is put away doth commit adultery."

Reconciliation

reconciliation also known as confession is a practice done primarily by Roman Catholics and old Catholics and some Eastern Orthodox and other Orthodox churches and Protestant denominations while baptism clears all past sin you can fall out of that Grace state by committing a mortal sin like a sexual sin severely and mortally wounding your relationship with God and putting your salvation at risk now there is something called venial sin which just damages your relationship with God but doesn't completely total it confession is the way to receive forgiveness for mortal and venial sin it is the you would go To a priest And confess your sins the reason you do this is because when Jesus started his church he handed his authority to the apostles he gave them the authority to forgive sins on Earth and the priests through Apostolic succession are the successors to the apostles meaning they can forgive sins. Jesus made the sacraments so we can receive Grace and forgiveness.

in complete emergency when you don't have access to a priest You can confess sin directly to God like for example if you live in a anti-catholic and anti-orthodox household and they will not let you go to confession confess your sins directed to God God knows what you're going through it's just he would rather you go through the sacraments he has gifted us that is the purpose of confession so that we may receive forgiveness through the sacraments baptism washes us clean of original sin and forgives our past sins confession allows us to continually receive forgiveness for our recent sins.

Holy orders and the last rites

Fully orders refers to the process in which men are ordained as deacons priests and Bishops. Of course this means they received the authority of the Apostles which received their Authority from Jesus via Apostolic succession with an exception for most Protestant denominations Campbell restorationists non-denominational churches of Christ which have no valid Apostolic succession this includes the evangelicals others. But for any church with valid Apostolic succession deacons priests and Bishops all have Apostolic succession. These people are ordained to serve the church in a special role Like administering sacraments and preaching the word of God And also being leaders for the faithful.

The last rites Also known as the sacrament of anointing the sick Is a Sacrament given to those who are near death it provides spiritual strength peace and forgiveness of sins. This is an extremely important Sacrament and act preparing the dying for an eternity. It is known as an important Act of compassion and faith.

Heresies

Jehovah's Witnesses

Jehovah's Witnesses are an Infamous group that deny the Trinity they are openly Unitarian They believe for some odd reason that Jesus Christ is the Archangel Michael and that he died on a pole instead of a cross They do not celebrate holidays like Christmas and Halloween because they view them as pagan They are also known for making extremely weird cartoons that are sometimes outright brutal they also have a watchtower which claims to predict the end of the world and it always fails Their view on the Trinity causes the entire thing to fall apart if there is no Jesus Christ who is the son in the Trinity there can be no holy spirit either Because of God never sent out the son the son could not give the Holy Spirit to us because the father did not give us the spirit directly but he gave it to his son to give to us Which is why Jehovah's Witness as a religion is heresy

Mormons

Mormons the followers of Mormonism Mormonism a religion started by Joseph Smith similar to Muhammad he tried to pull the self-certifying strategy saying that there was a missing verse in Genesis that could only be found in his translation The Book of Mormon spawned the belief that after Jesus's resurrection he appeared in America for some reason and many other sightings Mormonism also teaches that the Trinity Father Son and Holy Spirit are not three persons in one being but three beings United in purpose this may not be the blatant rejection of the Trinity from the Jehovah's Witnesses they believe Jesus is a God just one of three makes you wonder if the Quran just predicted Mormonism And then got confused what the differences between Mormonism and Christianity are Another weird thing is they believe Jesus and Satan are Spirit Brothers which sounds like something Jehovah's Witnesses would believe Thanks to the view of the trinity it is blatant polytheism disguised his monotheism splitting the Trinity up into three gods makes three false versions of the one true God meaning believing in Mormonism is idolatry and is heresy

Oneness Pentecostals

Oneness Pentecostals are reminiscent of a heresy of old modalism

the Oneness Pentecostals believe that Mary only gave birth to Jesus his human nature thus meaning they do not call her the mother of God or the theotokos they also have your average Pentecostal and Evangelical view of Mary which degrades her down a shell of her actual self the modalist part comes in when they start talking about Jesus in a weird way they think Jesus the father and the Holy Spirit are not Three persons they do believe they are one being but believe they not separate by anything at all causing a huge discrepancy like how the father's talking to the Son they cannot explain that due to their modalist views Their belief is that Jesus is the only person in the trinity and that Jesus is the father Son and Holy Spirit meaning their views are essentially Unitarian their problem is with how they treat Jesus they believe he's one being and one person but they believe he has three different roles Father Son and Holy Spirit or modes but they usually use the phrasing roles Their ideas about Jesus make them heretical

The Roman Catholic Church post Vatican II

Roman Catholic Church was valid for 1930 years But after that Vatican 2 was made which stated that Muslims and Christians worshiped the same God making them ultimately not Christian and heretical

The church

The church is the universal Body of Christ Founded by Jesus Christ himself

There is only one true Universal Church But since the great schism and many other mishaps it has split But it was not fully defeated the Gates of Hell will not fully Prevail against the church No matter how many pieces it is in

This church upholds the values of Apostolic tradition which has been found for the last 2,000 years of church tradition and the authority of scripture

The true church remains United in faith despite minor disagreements United in sacraments As outlined in the scriptures

the Dylantic reformation / restoration

The Dylantic reformation Gave birth to a Christian denomination known as Dylanticism a mixture of High Church traditional protestantism and Christian Orthodoxy It rejects the centralized papal Authority it rejects Rome But doesn't entirely reject Byzantine believing the line of ecumenical Patriarchs after Vatican II to be a direct continuation of the papacy in a way But it does not fully submit itself to Rome or Byzantine believing in decentralizing Imperial Authority believing that Christianity should not be influenced by politics While still keeping the hierarchical structure from the Rome and Byzantine traditions
